

Oxford Metrics

Preliminary Results 2016

Group Revenue up 14.6%
From continuing operations

Adjusted PBT* up 15.4%
From continuing operations

£8.3m

Group cash £8.3m
Another cash generative year

1.00p

Proposed Final Dividend increased by 54%
In line with progressive dividend policy

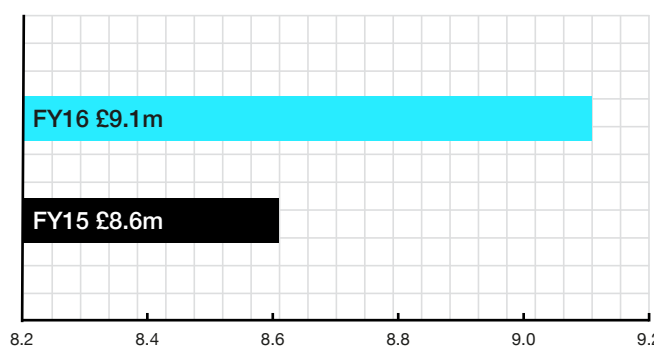

Another strong year for Yotta and Vicon

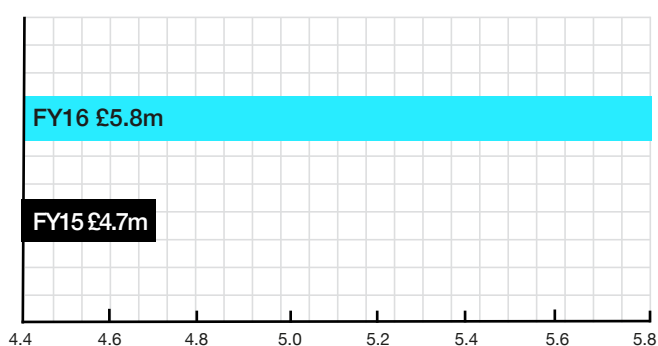

Continued investment in core businesses

Yotta

Yotta Revenue up 5.2%

Yotta Software Revenue up 21.7%

Expanding internationally with increased levels of recurring revenue

New Android™ suite of mobile apps including Street Works Mobile and Highways Assets

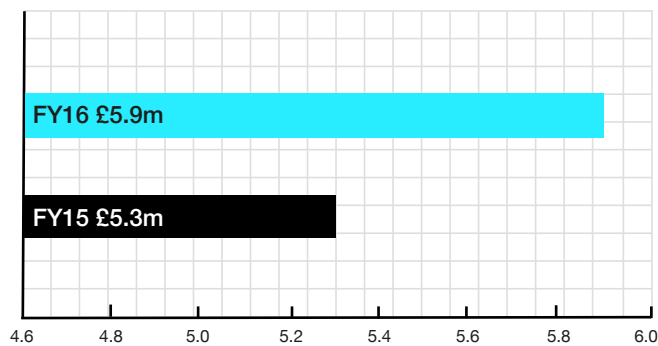

Another strong year of development with software and professional services making clear progress

Vicon

Vicon Revenue up 19.4%

Vicon Adjusted PBT* up 12.8%

Solid traction around the world for Vicon Vantage next generation motion measurement system

Vero product launched in June became the fastest selling system in company history

Vicon used on films Dr Strange and Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them plus FIFA 17 video game

Measuring what matters

For the full Preliminary Results 2016 click here
<https://www.oxfordmetrics.com/investors>

*Profit before tax from continuing operations before group recharges adjusted for share based payments, amortisation of intangibles arising on acquisition, and exceptional costs including impairment of intangibles and redundancy costs.